Session 3 of Peak Performance™ will be here before you know it! We look forward to hosting you, your referring dentists and staff from both offices for this exciting and important session.

Successful patient care is in many ways dependent on the patient's experience. From the first phone call to the consultation and treatment plan presentation, the patient is exposed to your staff long before they are able to establish a relationship with their doctor. This requires a coordination of efforts and seamless communication between the front and back-office staff. This session will concentrate on teaching the surgical and restorative teams the important skills needed to successfully guide patients through these difficult treatment plans.

In this session, we will train your treatment coordinators in the important skills needed to successfully grow their role in the patient care process. Oral surgeons, restorative dentists and coordinators will learn timely business and clinical skills individually and as a team.
